Barbes a papa

Lily-Anne remembered trying to get a barbe a papa after the Guignol puppet show here when she was 3, when they had just run out and so she couldn't get one. This time she got to live her dream!

These were the small size barbes a papa. How huge were the big ones, we wondered.

The nice man who made them took one out of the machine when it resembled a big q-tip and pretended to clean Nathaniel's ears with it.
